

THE MOUNTAIN SIGNAL

ARRIVAL OF TRAINS.

Day Mail North..... 12:42 p.m.
Day Mail South..... 2:39 p.m.
Night Express North..... 12:43 a.m.
Night Express South..... 12:43 a.m.
Local Freight North..... 4:12 p.m.
Local Freight South..... 9:37 a.m.

The Local freights carry passengers, with tickets, between Rowland and London.

JAS. MARET, Agent.

CLOSING OF MAILS.

Mail closes fifteen minutes before train are due. For Level Green, 1 p.m. Tuesday and Saturdays. Night mail closes at 6 p.m. Postoffice open from 8 to 9 a.m. Sunday.

MRS. M. E. BROWN, P. M.

COURT DIRECTORY.

ROCKCASTLE CIRCUIT COURT
Judge—Hon. T. Z. Morrow, of Pulaski Co.
Commonwealth's Attorney—William H. Herndon, of Garraod Co.
Clerk—W. M. Fish.

Master Commissioner—J. K. McClary
Trustee Jury Fund, S. L. Whitehead
Time of holding court, second Monday in January and August.

ROCKCASTLE QUARTERLY COURT
Judge—P. D. Caylor
Time of holding court, first Monday in January, July, April, and October.

ROCKCASTLE COUNTY COURT
Judge—P. D. Caylor
County Attorney—B. K. Bethuram
County Clerk—M. C. Miller
Sheriff—James I. White—Deputies—J. J. Smith, and W. S. Parker
Jailer—J. L. Arnold
Time of holding court, fourth Monday in each month.
Assessor—Jesse Hicks.
County Surveyor—William Wood
County Superintendent of Schools—S. C. Davis
Coroner—James Prewitt

POLICE COURT.
Judge—Willis Griffin.
Time of holding court, 3rd Monday in each month.

LOCALETTES.

F. L. Thompson has good 20 cent coffee.

John M. Williams has 3 hay stacks for sale.

Jas. Houk has returned from Danville Ind.

D. P. Bethuram has an onion weighing a pound.

Eli Ping has returned to his home at Cheriton, Iowa.

Frank Kirby sold two mules to Luther Maynard for $150.

Thos. McClure has returned from a surveying trip to Bell county.

Wm Hicks has a log wagon he will sell cheap. Inquire at this office t3

W. R. Ramsey and Cortez Brown of London, were in town Monday.

John Prewitt has found a 65 inch vein of coal on his place on Skaggs.

Mt. Vernon has a good opening for a mattress factory, barber shop and bakery.

You will find notions &c., very cheap at Whitehead's for the next four weeks.

All the patients lately operated upon by the doctors here are doing well.

J. W. Murler secured a judgement in Police court against Reeder & Co for $75.

A. J. Tharp of Winston, Estill county, will shortly move his saw mill to Wildie.

W. L. Martin, S. B. McClure and Mr. Ewell were up from Livingston Sunday.

The wife of Capt Sweney, the veteran railroad conductor, died in Louisville Monday.

Sanitary Muraline is the best inside wall finish, call at Williams drug store for it.

M. C. Williams has bought of W. M. Weber, the house now occupied by Willis Adams, for $450.

Mrs. J. G. Carter, leaves today for Cincinnati, to see a doctor for cancerous trouble of the throat.

I have the goods. In fact my house is jammed with them, and at prices to suit all. F. L. Thompson.

A delegation of W. C. T. U. young ladies gave this office a call Saturday to have some printing done.

A singing school begins at church

Monday night by Prof. T. D. Mullins, of near Maresburg.

D. D. White and family, who lived at the Ashley place near town, have moved to Washington, Ind.

The judgment for $2500 in favor of M. V. Wilsey vs the L. & N. R. R. has been reversed by the Superior court and a new trial will be had.

Paint your houses with the best paints and oils on the market, which you can find at Williams' drug store.

The negro Freeman who was jailed here three weeks since as a suspected felon from Tennessee has been released.

The old porch on East side of Capt Jack Adams store house has been torn away and the old ten pen alley just back of it has been torn down and removed.

Any one finding a new barrel that fell off the train near here a few days since will please bring to depot. Suitable reward.

If you need any paint brushes, tooth brushes or anything else kept in a first class drug store, call on M. C. & D. N. Williams.

The larger portion of Rockcastle's population consists of Mullins and Owens and their relatives, and they are all good clever citizens.

John Mize of Laclede Mo, aged 82, after 47 years residence in the west has returned to Rockcastle and is looking up a farm to purchase.

All persons indebted, much or little, to J. L. Whitehead are requested to come and settle at once. This is the first time you have been asked.

Our foreman J. R. Vowels is certainly a hustler. He with an assistant, does all the type setting etc. in getting out our paper and never fails to come on time.

M. C. & D. N. Williams are agents for the North-Western Fertilizer Co. All persons desiring a good fertilizer should call on them. Its the best in the market.

J. W. Nesbitt wants ten teams to haul staves from mouth of Skaggs creek to Hazel Patch, at $5 per thousand. Steady work and pay every two weeks if desired.

D. N. Williams has traded his 320 acres of Lubbock county Texas land to J. L. Whitehead for his property and six acres of land in the East end of town paying $275. difference.

L. B. Adams will soon bring on a big stock of goods and to purchase them cheaply in the market requires cash. Those owing on note or account will please call and arrange settlement.

R. L. Joplin with Duffield's surveying party in Bell county has been promoted to transitman's place at advanced wages. J. W. Miller has taken an engineer's place at Pineville.

P. L. Nash, formerly of Rockcastle but now an extensive Tobacco farmer of Spencer county, called on us this week and left us a pleasant little reminder in the way of a year's subscription to the Signal.

Mr. W. E. Perkins of the enterprising firm of Martin & Perkins, of Brodhead, made us a pleasant visit yesterday and complimented us with a nice order for job work etc. Success to you Mr. Perkins.

What our town needs, and needs badly, is more houses to accommodate those who would locate with us, if such accommodations could be obtained. Would it not show a more enterprising spirit, and at the same time be a profitable undertaking for our citizens who have vacant lots and other necessary requests to build a few cottages for the benefit of those who are begging an opportunity to come among our good people.

D. B. Carson, our friend and companion in schoolboy days, writes, from McMinnville, Tenn. where he is freight and ticket agent: I see through the I. J. of Stanford, that you have embarked into journalism, and knowing your ability as a R. R. Agt, I am confident you will make a good Editor at least I am willing to back my judgment by enclosing $1.25 for one year's subscription.

No one appreciates a good newspaper more than myself. I have been a subscriber of the L. J. for several years and it would amuse you to see with what eagerness I devour its contents, especially the Crab Orchard and Mt. Vernon letters.

My 73 to the boys on the Ellen N.

SYRUP OF FIGS.

Is Nature's own true laxative. It is the most easily taken, and the most effective remedy known to cleanse the System when Bilious or Costive; to dispe Headaches, Colds, and Fever; to Cure Habitual Constipation, Indigestion, Piles, etc. For sale at Williams' drug store

ORLANDO.

The coal company will go to shipping in a few days.

Charley Carter received two car loads of lumber from Wm. McNew last week.

Deputy Sheriff Smith was here a few days ago serving some "duns" on the boys.

Wm. McNew smiles over $323, from the L. & N. for lumber, and has three cars ready to ship this week.

We are all peaceable here now and don't hear any pops, nor any man say he is the best man out, unless he is full of whisky.

Revs. Hotts, of Jackson county, and Parker of this county, held a seven days meeting at New Hope last week with eleven additions.

I passed through Brush Creek station a few days since, and as usual, there was John C. Childers awaiting the arrival of the North bound train and he threatened to ship me off in a box car, if I didn't make up my time on the loafing list, which he claims I am two weeks behind on.

Mr. Ed. I set from your correspondents have been exploring caves. There is a cave on Crooked Creek that runs through a hill nearly a mile long, and contains several rooms, one of them is called the devil's race, and it is said that the devil's broth itself comes out through copper pipes, and looks, tastes and smells just like good corn whisky.

LONDON

William Brown is erecting a neat side room to his dwelling.

J. R. Hodge contemplates laying in a large stock of dry goods.

W. J. Mullins is the man to get to do your painting and don't you forget it.

Dr. A. L. Browner, of Langnan, can be seen smiling on our streets again.

Miss Mollie Mullins contemplates going to Hyden to take music lessons shortly.

James Parsley, three miles north of here, had his house and its entire contents burned.

Jacob Dees of col., is now lying in jail awaiting his trial, for rocking the passenger train.

G. W. Laws, with Jackson, Anderson & Co., can be seen taking orders for the firm he represents.

PLEASANT VALLEY

Church at Buckeye Sunday next.

We learn that Wm. Buford has returned home.

Mrs. Anna Riddle has returned home to Pulaski county.

James W. Riddle has gone to Pulaski county courting. We hope he will have good luck.

John Owens who moved to Virginia several times, has moved back in his old house, on Mrs. Carter's place.

D. L. Bryant is forty years old and never went to mill horse back but one time, and then he said he had rather walked.

James Merricks has sold his blacksmith tools to B. F. Chesnut, and he is going to bid Rockcastle good-by.

There is a man in this place who would like to know if the inhabitants of Frog Level are troubled much with the frogs muttering, as they have commenced their racket here.

CONWAY

Mrs. Hardin is some better.

R. M. Johnston is improving.

Frank Mefford, of Winchester, wa here Mohday

Died, on the 16th, the infant of Joseph Redman.

Work was begun on Hart's new residence last Tuesday.

Judging from the recent sales, Conway is experiencing a real estate boom.

Joe Jones has moved to the house formerly occupied by A. Q. Baker deceased.

Mrs. Lena Lambert and daughter are not expected to live, they being ill with measles.

There is a box car here that is evidently haunted, as a man has been seen of in it in all kinds of shapes.

J. S. Waddle lost an ox the other night, valued at $65, or 65cts. we have forgotten which.

M. L. Kelton has purchased the house and lot known as the Candy property for which he paid $175, he will tear down the old house and build a new one at the same place.

PLATO

Feed and grain are very scarce.

G. B. Broyles returned from Chattanooga last week.

C. S. Broyles went to Lexington last week on business.

Andy Baker, the enterprising book agent, has been our midst for several days.

Measles have subsided considerably since our last letter, but some tolerably bad cases yet.

Farmers who intended sowing oats this week, will wait until we have some more fine weather we guess.

Jefferson Thompson and family, of Burnside, have been visiting relatives in this vicinity for some time, have returned home.

A bright little girl of two summers, a daughter of Josiah Nevils, died. She had had measles, and took something like croup. A small child of Logan Bullock and a child John Prewitt have also died.

E. Rigney, our boss horse swapper, has fixed it now. He has a horse that will take the blue ribbon over anything that was in this part so far as kicking is concerned when he is harnessed to a wagon he kicks till he gets loose and in the barn.

MARYDELL.

James E. Root has a dissected map of the U. S.

Gipson Weaver is quite low with typhoid fever.

John Gray sold a lot of young cattle to Wm. Watkins.

Robert Jones has sold his farm to his son and is going West.

Rev. George Profit preached at Providence church Sunday.

Died, on the 13th, of fever, Robert son of Pleasant Bruner.

Rev. Wm. Fisher and L. Hampton preached at the Philpot school house Sunday.

There was a magic lantern exhibition at the residence of Joseph Griffin Saturday night.

Married on Thursday of last week, at the residence of the brides parents, James Hale, constable of this precinct, to Miss Maria Weaver.

Wm. Crawford shot and killed Hugh Gregory at the latter's grocery Sunday night. The parties were drunk and the difficulty I learn came up over a game of cards.

John Gray, Edward Cobb, Robert Jones, Thomas Day, and family are to leave this week for parts in Nebraska. We regret to have them leave, but if it is in accordance with their wishes to go, we wish them lots of success.

John Gregory took a little jaunt down Little Goose Creek Sunday in search of a congenial companion. He reports an enjoyable trip and anticipates going again. John is a jo-dandy sort of a young man and admires the sparkle of a pretty girls eye.

Marydell is situated in Laurel county midway between London and Manchester and near the Clay county line. It is 12 miles distant from London and situated on a high place and occupies a commanding site overlooking a radius of level ground in nearly every direction. Its population is composed chiefly of cattle, poultry, sheep swine and of the canine and feline progeny.

For further particulars I would advise the Rule cor. to consult Prof. Proctor our State geologist, or procure a copy of Rand & McNally's maps. Now, I trust his feelings of reciprocity will prompt him to locate little out of the way Rule. I have searched both the Kentucky Gazetteer and U. S. Postal Guide and for the life of me was unable to find it in either.

MULLINS' MILL

Mrs. Champ Mullins some better.

The creeks are past fording to-day, Monday.

Jerome Adams family are visiting friends near Broadhead.

Miss Candy, and Mat Mullins, are visiting friends near freedom.

W. G. Mullins bought two steers from Wm Mullins for $20.

Preaching at Pleasant Hill Sunday, good gathering. Text was "Preach the Word."

Lumber and cro ties are all the go. H. G. Mullins and Gilvy Black are the best haulers.

J. E. Singleton was missing Sunday. Don't know where he was, he said he was n't going to be a bachelor always.

Harve Mink and Mat Winstead have contracted, to haul 500,000 ft of lumber for Edmonson and Payee, from White Oak branch to Switch, for 30 cts per 100 ft.

ROUNDSTONE

J. H. Hayes has finished his barn at last.

A big boy at A. C. Tower's, named Albert.

W. H. Albright and wife are still improving.

Allen Hiatt and family are visiting relatives on Clear Creek.

W. H. Albright has his distillery started up and is progressing rapidly.

J. T. Sowder swapped to Tom Hayes two milch cows for one yoke of oxen.

Miss Lou Turpen and Miss Myrtle Fish spent Sunday with Miss Cora and Anna Fish.

There was a dance at Francis Hursts Tuesday night, and some of our old Baptist church members skipped out. Another trial at Hickory Grove.

TO THE FARMERS OF ROCKCASTLE COUNTY.

10,000 dozen fresh eggs wanted, for which I will pay the highest cash market price, to be delivered at Crab Orchard. (Emigrant House.)

16m2 M. LIVINGSTON

J. W. MAY, PRACTICAL ARCHITECT AND BUILDER

Now with Maret, Vowels & Co., is prepared to furnish plans and specifications of all kinds of buildings. Special attention paid to getting up designs for verandas in the latest styles.

16f